DAD'S SEASON TICKETS AUDITION INFORMATION

It's football season! And we need YOU!

I am looking for energetic, team playing cast members who can tell a good story, create distinct/memorable characters, and are able to portray deep familial relationships.

When: November 21st 1-4pm and November 22nd from 1-4pm
Where: Schauer Arts Center, 147 N Rural St. Hartford, WI 53027

- Auditions will be held in Pike's Peak. Enter the Schauer through the small door #2 to the left of the main entrance, walk all the way down the hallway, turn right up the stairs, and the room will be through large doors at the top of the stairs and to your right.

How auditions will work:
You will sing your song selection first in front of production staff and other auditioners. If there are any cuts to the song, you will be told about them before the song part of the audition begins. You will be singing along with either a track or a live accompanist.

Once all the singing is completed we will begin reading cuts from the script. Where you will begin reading and where you will end, will be specified at auditions.

There will be no callbacks. HOWEVER, you may be asked to stay after for a cold read or singing a different song from the show. All of this will happen before 4pm. Not being asked to stay does not mean you are not still in consideration for the role :)

The cast will be announced before Thanksgiving.

You only need to attend one day of auditions.

Available Roles:
Frank Kosinski: Patriarch of the Kosinski family, age 61. Father of Rhonda, Gabby, and Cordy. Lifelong Packer season-ticket holder and fan. He is unfailingly positive, even in the face of the near constant familial strife Cordy Kosinski: Frank's youngest daughter, 17. She is a bright, ambitious high school senior who more often than not finds herself caught between her warring older sisters. Her full name is Cordelia, but she prefers to go by Cordy.

Rhonda Kafura: Frank's eldest daughter, 37. She is stubborn and opinionated. She prefers hosting and entertaining for her family to actually watching Packer games with them.

Ralph Kafura: Rhonda's Packer-loving husband, 40. He possesses a bevy of football and Packers knowledge, which becomes an asset to his wife as the story unfolds. He has a lucky jersey he always wears on game day. Always. It gets smellier as the show progresses.

Gabby Nimwitz: Frank's middle daughter, 32. She is loud and brash, and prides herself on being the family's biggest Packer fan. She is very pregnant to start the show.

Edgar Nimwitz: Gabby's husband, 35. He is mild-mannered and studious, very much the antithesis of his wife. He is an adjunct English professor at UWGB, and harbors a dark secret.
